You sustows, O., May 10th, 180. Dr. B. J. Kendali & Co., Gents: -1 Ind a very valuable Hambietonian coff which I prized very highly, he had a large bone spavin on one joint and a small one on the other which imade him very lane; I had him under the charge of two veternary surgeons which fallest to cure him. I was one day reading the advertisement of Kendali's Spavin Cure in Chicago Express, I determined at once to try it, and got our druggists here to send for it, they ordered three bottles; I took them all and thought I would give it a thorough trial, I used it according to directions, and the

Kendall's Spavin Cure on Human Flesh

PATTEN'S MILLS, Washington County, N. Y., Feb. 21st, 1878. | Dr. B. J. Kendall, Dear Sir; - The particular ase on which I used your Kendall's Spavin

Rendall's Spavin Cure is sure in its effects, mild in its action, as if does not bliret; yet it is penetrating and powerful to reach every deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or other smargnest, such as spavins, splints, carbs, callons, sprains, swellings, any hamaness and all enlargements of the joints or limbs, or the unualism in man and for any purpose for which a liminent is used for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used, acting mild and yet certain in its effects.

Send address for libratrated Circular which we think gives positive proof of its virtues. No remedy has ever met with such unqualited success to our knowledge, for beast as well as man.
